Starting the Year off Right: Successful Fundraising in Challenging Times

Monday, January 11, 2010, 12:30-5:00 PM

Cost: $30 - Pre-registration Required - Seating is Limited

Begin the year gaining or refining your fundraising skills to work “smarter, not harder” in these economic times. Learn fundraising principles that will help you raise more money for your organization in good times and in bad. Consider how to build stronger relationships with your donors and create a team to support your fundraising efforts. Gain confidence asking for the support you need. Learn how to create an annual fundraising plan to guide your efforts. This workshop will focus on building a broad base of individual donors, and is aimed at small to mid-sized community organizations that have limited resources for fundraising.

Facilitated by Stephanie Roth, Editor of the Grassroots Fundraising Journal and partner with Kim Klein in Klein & Roth Consulting.

Registration: The registration form is available online at www.kauainetwork.org.

Fee: $30 per person (maximum two people per organization).
Advance payment by check or cash required. Seating is limited.

Location: Kaua'i Humane Society Training Room, Puhi. Doors open at noon.
