NCL America Hosts KPAA Aboard The Pride of Hawaii

Lihu`e, Kaua`i, HI – 10/13/06 Norwegian Cruise Lines America will host “Brunch On Board The Pride of Hawaii”, a fundraising event on November 11th to benefit the Kaua`i Planning & Action Alliance (KPAA).

KPAA invites its members and community supporters to experience a unique fundraising experience onboard The Pride of Hawaii from 10:30 am-2:30 pm on Saturday, November 11. A champagne reception and music by slack key guitarist Paul Togioka will welcome guests. Ship tours will be available. In addition to a four-course brunch, guest speaker Warren Haruki, President & CEO of Grove Farm, will present his thoughts on “Building Community: The Pride of Kaua`i”. Cost for the event is $100 per person. Contact KPAA at 632-2005 for reservations and information on corporate tables.

“This marks our first ever fundraiser, “ says Diane Zachary, President and CEO of KPAA. “We are truly appreciative of NCL’s support for this event that offers us a special venue to share with the community who we are, what we do and celebrate our successes.”

KPAA is a non-profit membership organization that provides a forum to the community to develop and implement effective solutions to issues that matter to Kaua`i. For more information on KPAA, visit www.kauainetwork.org or email kpaa@kauainetwork.org.
